"The people of the United States," he began, "heard only of the night life of Broadway: they saw only the bleary eyes of the Tenderloin. They said out west. "She's pleasure mad—she's pleasure drunk." Oh, they lost sight of the thousands of devoted parents who rear their children in God's love.

"To-day through the results of this revival the whole country is accing the real heart and spirit of old Manhattan. Now they know that the ghastly horrors of the Tenderioln, with its painted women—poor, broken shadows of the women who were—its gunmen, its painted shows, are all only a carbuncle on the necke of the body politic. The tenderiol of the body politic. The sail to remonstrate. He reminded the sail to remonstrate the very collectors who hesitate to purchase a Chase family portrait of the body politic. the people of America to-day, Billy said. "We used to think that France was all gayety, gil degeneracy, that dudes and taugo lizards were typical of her men. But the war has shown the world the real, true heart and soul of France, and her capacity for sacrifice for the principles of free government.

O. God, how she can fight!

Billy's sermon on "Is It Well with Thee?" gave him a splendid chance to hit hard at the parents who are "letting their children grow up like wild asses' colis." There are parents right here in New York who through indifference and bad example are loading their children straight to hell:" he shouted at one point.

"Say, the average frizzle headed slssy that hasn't sprouted long skirts—and But the war has shown the

At the close of the evening session 1.087 came down the trail and gave Billy their hands. The afternoon netted 420, bringing the total to 1.517.

In the afterneon Billy took some stiff swings at the church. "In her endeavors to serve God and Mammon the church has become crosseyed." he said. "Thank God Jesus had no more use for the social snob than he did for the moral snob. The trouble with church people now is that they go to church now is that they go to church Congress also came in for a stiff up-percut. "If we were all real Chris-tians." Billy shouted, "we wouldn't get Boyed around on the checkerboard. And that God forsaken gaug—Congress would get up and do something."

NO HAMMERSTEIN OPERA.

Court of Appeals Upholds Agreement With Metropolitan.

Ataant, May 15.—Under a ruling by the Court of Appeals to-day Oscar Ham-merstein is prevented from producing grand opera until April, 1920. Frand opera until April, 1920.

The court sustained a restraining order granted by the lower courts at the instance of the Metropolitan Opera Company, thereby validating a contract entered into in 1910 between Hammerstein and the opera company in part consideration of the sale by Hammerstein of a Philadelphia theatre, under which it was held the New York manager agreed not to participate in grand opera productions for ten years.
